

To whom it may concern,

I am writing to wholeheartedly recommend my friend Betty Lara as a mentor. I have known Betty for over a decade, during which time I have witnessed firsthand her exceptional qualities and dedication to mentoring others. I too have benefitted from her godly wisdom and guidance.

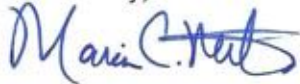

Betty uses her God-given ability to empathize with others and provide thoughtful guidance. Her approach to mentoring is not just about offering solid, biblically based advice, but about actively listening and understanding the individual needs and aspirations of her mentees.

I trust Betty as a mentor because of her deep love of, knowledge about and experience with the Word of God. She has a proven history of helping others navigate challenges and achieve their goals through the power of faith and prayer and practical insights and encouragement.

Beyond her expertise, Betty is known for her integrity and reliability. She consistently demonstrates a genuine commitment to the success and well-being of those she mentors, earning their respect and admiration.

I have no doubt that Betty would be an invaluable mentor to anyone seeking guidance. Her love for the Lord, her passion for helping others grow, combined with her exceptional qualities as a mentor, make her an outstanding choice. Please feel free to contact me if you require any further information.

Sincerely,
